GIVING NATURE A HOME

BUILDING SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

Throughout the planning process before starting build, we consider where we can introduce nature and where we can strengthen it.

At David Wilson Homes, we do more than simply craft beautiful homes and desirable developments.

We design and build great places that meet the highest standards, and that promote sustainable, healthy and happy living for our customers.

We know we must give our customers confidence that their homes are designed and built to meet the challenges of the future. We do this through creating places where people and nature can thrive.

THE HEREFORD

FOUR BEDROOM SEMI-DETACHED HOME

This double bay-fronted, end-terraced home has been tastefully designed over three storeys. The Hereford's large open-plan kitchen - with adjacent utility - has a dedicated dining area opening out onto the garden via a glazed walk-in bay. A generous lounge meanwhile provides space to relax and entertain. On the first floor are two double bedrooms, the master with en suite, and the family bathroom. Upstairs again there is a further double bedroom, a single bedroom and a shower room.

THE KIRKDALE

FOUR BEDROOM DETACHED HOME

Sash-style windows give The Kirkdale a delightfully traditional look, while inside it is designed very much for modern family life. The hub of the house will surely be the expansive open-plan kitchen, which has dining and family areas with French doors to the garden and a separate utility room. The lounge has an attractive front-aspect bay window, making it a pleasant place to relax. Upstairs, four double bedrooms – the main with en suite – and a family bathroom provide comfort for all the family.

NEW HOMES QUALITY CODE

Housebuilders and developers who build new homes will be expected to register with the New Homes Quality Board (NHQB). As long as a housebuilder or developer has followed the correct registration process, including completing the necessary training, introducing a complaints procedure, and following other processes and procedures that are needed to meet the requirements of this New Homes Quality Code (the code), they will become a registered developer.

Registered developers agree to follow the code and the New Homes Ombudsman Service, including accepting the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman in relation to dealings with customers. If a registered developer does not meet the required standards, or fails to accept and act in line with the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman, they may have action taken against them, including being removed from the register of registered developers.

The code sets out the requirements that registered developers must meet. The code may be updated from time to time to reflect changes to industry best practice as well as the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman Service.

All homes built by registered developers must meet building-safety and other regulations. All registered developers should aim to make sure there are no snags or defects in their properties before the keys are handed over to a customer. If there are any snags or defects, these should be put right within the agreed timescales.

WHAT THE CODE COVERS

For the purposes of this code, 'customer' means a person who is buying or intends to buy a new home which they will live in or give to another person. (If a new home is being bought in joint names, 'the customer' includes all the joint customers.) However, the New Homes Quality Board have also started work to consider other groups of customers and what they should be able to expect from a new home. This includes shared owners and people who are buying a new home to let to other people. Any changes the New Homes Quality Board make to the code to reflect the needs of other groups of customers will be developed through consultation, and they will continually assess and review the effectiveness of the code, and any new laws or regulations that apply. Other areas which are not covered by the code are claims for loss of property value or blight (where a property falls in value or becomes difficult to sell because of major public work in the area), personal injury or claims that are not covered by the scheme rules of the New Homes Ombudsman Service.
