WHERE QUALITY LIVES

WOODLAND HEATH

— A LOCATION LIKE NO OTHER —

Living at Woodland Heath offers the best of both worlds; the amenities at Sprowston, a growing town perfectly located on the outskirts of Norwich, while also being close to open farmland for a rural retreat.

Showcasing its own individual charm, the popular town is ideal for anyone looking to live away from the hustle and bustle of a city lifestyle, yet still benefit from straightforward access to it. While already having essential amenities on the doorstep, Sprowston has an exciting development plan in place to bring more shops and greater health and education services to the area, all accessible on foot or via cycling routes and public transport.

Close to mature woodland, residents in this new community can enjoy a peaceful setting with plenty of opportunities for a breath of fresh air in the local area. Sparhawk Park, Millennium Woodland and Windsor Park Gardens are popular destinations for family outings, filled with beautiful views and open spaces.

Sprowston is home to well-regarded schools, including the Ofsted-rated 'Outstanding' Sparhawk Infant School and Nursery, providing reassurance for growing families. Meanwhile, the picturesque East Anglian coast is only a short distance away. Sprowston Manor Golf Club is also nearby for anyone seeking regular leisure activities.

In moving to Woodland Heath, you can join a wider community that's growing in popularity.

A SENSE OF PEACE,
QUALITY
— AND SPACE —

Meeting the needs of many different buyers, our thoughtfully designed properties at Woodland Heath aim to make your aspirations become reality. We pride ourselves on building high-quality, versatile homes with open-plan and bright interiors to allow you to tailor your property to suit your lifestyle.

New-found priorities are catered for as our properties feature spare rooms or studies to make space for home working or accommodating house guests, while an en suite bathroom to a main bedroom provides a sense of independence and privacy away from the hustle and bustle of a family home.

Inviting hallways lead the way to generous living spaces, designed to accommodate quality family time and a warm ambience. The living rooms are perfect for evening and weekend downtime while open-plan kitchens are fantastically laid out. Natural light flows throughout the properties via French doors, which open out to lovely rear gardens.

Energy efficiency is at the forefront of the designs, one of the many benefits of securing a new-build home.

Quality Code

Housebuilders and developers who build new homes will be expected to register with the New Homes Quality Board (NHQB). As long as a housebuilder or developer has followed the correct registration process, including completing the necessary training, introducing a complaints procedure, and following other processes and procedures that are needed to meet the requirements of this New Homes Quality Code (the code), they will become a registered developer.

Registered developers agree to follow the code and the New Homes Ombudsman Service, including accepting the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman in relation to dealings with customers. If a registered developer does not meet the required standards, or fails to accept and act in line with the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman, they may have action taken against them, including being removed from the register of registered developers.

The code sets out the requirements that registered developers must meet. The code may be updated from time to time to reflect changes to industry best practice as well as the decisions of the New Homes Ombudsman Service.

All homes built by registered developers must meet building-safety and other regulations. All registered developers should aim to make sure there are no snags or defects in their properties before the keys are handed over to a customer. If there are any snags or defects, these should be put right within the agreed timescales.

What the code covers

For the purposes of this code, 'customer' means a person who is buying or intends to buy a new home which they will live in or give to another person. (If a new home is being bought in joint names, 'the customer' includes all the joint customers.) However, the New Homes Quality Board have also started work to consider other groups of customers and what they should be able to expect from a new home. This includes shared owners and people who are buying a new home to let to other people. Any changes the New Homes Quality Board make to the code to reflect the needs of other groups of customers will be developed through consultation, and they will continually assess and review the effectiveness of the code, and any new laws or regulations that apply. Other areas which are not covered by the code are claims for loss of property value or blight (where a property falls in value or becomes difficult to sell because of major public work in the area), personal injury or claims that are not covered by the scheme rules of the New Homes Ombudsman Service.

Nothing in this code affects any other rights the customer has by law and does not replace any legislation that applies to the new home. Customers do not have to make a complaint to the New Homes Ombudsman Service if they are not satisfied with a matter that is covered by the code. They may decide to take other action, such as through the civil courts or other ombudsman or regulator. We are on the New Homes Quality Code register of registered developers. "We" refers to the Barratt Developments PLC group brands including Barratt London, Barratt Homes and David Wilson Homes. All images used are for illustrative purposes.
